Vision

As the role of design in China becomes more broadly accepted, understood and applied, today's young designers will shape China tomorrow.

Our aim is to help young designers navigate the choices open to them as they begin their journey as design professionals.

We have assembled a team of international design experts with rich experience in curating design shows in London, Paris, Chongqing, Zhuhai; and supporting early stage career growth.

New Horizons celebrates excellence in today's new talents and will grow into a vital resource for design in China.
